

United States District Court
Eastern District of California

Curtis J. Williams,

Plaintiff,

No. Civ. S 05-0164 DFL PAN P

vs.

Order Directing Service by the United States Marshal Without Prepayment of Costs

R.W. Sandham, et al. /

Defendants.

- 909 -

Plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. The court previously ordered plaintiff to provide information for service of process on form USM-285, sufficient copies of the complaint for service, and a notice of compliance. Plaintiff has filed the required papers.

23 1. The Clerk of the Court is directed to forward the 24 instructions for service of process, the completed summons, and 25 copies of the complaint and of this order to the United States
26 Marshal;

1 2. Within ten days the United States Marshal shall notify 2 defendants R.W. Sandham, J.D. Steen, J. Rohlwing and P. Mangis of 3 the commencement of this action and request waiver of service of 4 summons in accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P.
5 4(d).

6 3. The United States Marshal shall retain the original
7 summons and a copy of the complaint in his file.

8 4. The United States Marshal shall file written waivers of 9 service of summons and any requests for waiver of service that 10 are returned undelivered as soon as they are received.

11 5. If a requested waiver of service of summons is not 12 returned by a defendant within 60 days from the day the request
13 was mailed, the United States Marshal shall:

14 a. Serve process and a copy of this order upon the 15 defendant pursuant to Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil 16 Procedure and 28 U.S.C. § 566(c) and shall command all necessary
17 assistance from the California Department of Corrections to 18 execute this order. The United States Marshal shall maintain the 19 privacy of all information provided in confidence by the 20 Department pursuant to this order.

21 b. Within ten days after service is made, file the return 22 of service for the defendant with evidence of any attempts to 23 secure a waiver of service of summons and of the costs
24 subsequently incurred in effecting service on said defendant.
25 Said costs shall be itemized on form USM-285 and shall include
26 costs incurred by the Marshal for photocopying the summons and

1 complaint and preparing any new forms USM-285. Costs of service
2 will be taxed against the defendant in accordance with Fed. R.
3 Civ. P. 4(d)(2).

4 6. Defendants shall reply to the complaint within the time
5 provided by Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a).

6 7. Unless otherwise ordered, all motions to dismiss,
7 motions for summary judgment, motions concerning discovery,
8 motions pursuant to Rules 7, 11, 12, 15, 41, 55, 56, 59 and 60 of 9 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and motions pursuant to 10 Local Rule 11-110 shall be briefed pursuant to Local Rule
11 78-230(m). Failure timely to oppose a motion may be deemed 12 consent to the relief requested in the motion. Opposition to all 13 other motions need be filed only as specifically directed by the 14 court.

15 8. If plaintiff is released from prison during the pendency
16 of this action, any party may request application of other 17 provisions of Local Rule 78-230 but Local Rule 78-230(m) shall 18 apply until such a request is made and granted. See Local Rule
19 1-102(d).

20 9. Pursuant to Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1119-20 &
21 n. 14 (9th Cir. 2003), plaintiff is advised of the following 22 requirements for opposing a motion to dismiss for failure to 23 exhaust administrative remedies made by a defendant. Such a 24 motion is a request for dismissal of unexhausted claims without 25 prejudice. The defendant may submit evidence including 26 declarations under penalty of perjury and duly authenticated

1 documents to support the request. If plaintiff contends he did
2 exhaust administrative remedies available to him, plaintiff may 3 oppose defendant's motion and submit evidence, including his own 4 or others' competent declarations under penalty of perjury and 5 duly authenticated documents. If plaintiff does not serve and 6 file a written opposition to the motion, the court may consider 7 the failure as plaintiff's consent that the motion should be 8 granted. If the defendant's motion to dismiss is granted
9 plaintiff's unexhausted claims will be dismissed without 10 prejudice.

11 10. Pursuant to Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 957 (9th 12 Cir. 1998) (en banc), cert. denied, 527 U.S. 1035 (1999), and 13 Klingele v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409 (9th Cir. 1988), plaintiff
14 is advised of the following requirements for opposing a motion 15 for summary judgment made by a defendant pursuant to Rule 56 of 16 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion is a request 17 for an order for judgment in favor of the defendant without 18 trial. A defendant's motion for summary judgment will set forth 19 the facts affecting plaintiff's right to relief under the 20 applicable law that defendant contends are not reasonably subject
21 to dispute. To oppose a motion for summary judgment, plaintiff
22 must present evidence in support of his claims. To do this, 23 plaintiff may call the court's attention to statements within 24 plaintiff's knowledge made under the penalty of perjury in the 25 complaint, or submit his own or others' competent declarations 26 under penalty of perjury, duly authenticated documents, the transcript of a deposition, answers to interrogatories, or admissions obtained in this proceeding. If there is some good reason why such evidence is not available to plaintiff when required to oppose a motion for summary judgment, the court will consider a request to postpone considering the defendant's motion.

11. Unsigned affidavits or declarations will be stricken.

8 12. Each party shall promptly advise the court if they 9 change their address by serving and filing a document entitled 10 "Notice of Change of Address." Failure to inform the court of a 11 change of address may result in the imposition of sanctions
12 including dismissal of the action.

13 13. The Clerk of the Court shall serve upon plaintiff a 14 copy of the Local Rules of Court.

14. The failure of any party to comply with this order, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or the Local Rules of Court may result in the imposition of sanctions including, but not limited to, dismissal of the action or entry of default. Fed. R. Civ. P.
11; Local Rule 11-110.

20 So ordered.

21 Dated: July 7, 2005.
